25X1 5. [] Talked with Bernard Fensterwald, of the Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure staff, indicating that the Agency, NSA and Justice had approved the language we had discussed with him except for the use of the word "obtain" in lieu of "collect." Fensterwald stated he planned to use no words of explanation regarding this new wording but would indicate that the language was intended to negative the thought of the use of wire tapping against organized crime, etc.

25X1 6. [] Talked with Miss Dorothy Fosdick, Staff Director of the Subcommittee on National Security and International Operations, concerning her prior request for Agency assistance in the preparation of another publication similar to the "Soviet View of NATO." I told Miss Fosdick that the people who had assisted with the previous study have reviewed the current situation and it was their judgment that there was not sufficient, additional, authoritative material at the present time. They felt that while we could dredge up some material, it would not be of sufficient impact for the Subcommittee's use. Miss Fosdick said she had complete confidence in our judgment in this respect and, therefore, decided to do nothing further at this time. She did accept, however, our offer to levy a standing requirement in this field should the situation change in the future. (This is being handled by [] OCI.)
